

Empathy Mapping

An empathy map is a collaborative visualization used to articulate what we know about a particular type of group. It externalizes knowledge about groups in order to 1) create a shared understanding of their needs, and 2) aid in decision making.

